The image shows a musical score for a hymn, consisting of two systems of staves. The first system is for a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature. The second system is for a piano accompaniment, also written on two staves with the same key signature. The lyrics are written below the vocal line and above the piano accompaniment. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.
