

14. Joseph Knew

Tenor solo with piano

Words by
Toni Thomas

Music by
Diane Tuiofu

Simply and sincerely

1 2 3 4

mp

rit mp a tempo

1. In the still of the morn he slipped a-way, through the
2. glo - rious the truth for them that hear, and yet

rit. mp

5 6 7

mf

shad - dows to a qui - et grove to pray. He pon - dered what to do, which, if some men would not, they spread ha - tred and fear. They cast Jo - seph in - to chains, tarred and

mf

8 9 10

an - y church were true. When he re - turned, the light had dawned. And he fea - thered him with shame, yet, more than this the man could bear; for he knew; Jo - seph knew. He knew God lives, for he knew; Jo - seph knew.

11 12 13

14 15 16

saw Them there; the Fa - ther and the Son in an - swer to his prayer. 'Tho the 17 18 19

dim. 1. mf

hearts of men would rage, yet, no - thing could change what was true.

l.h. dim. mf

20 21 22

rit. mp | 2. mf mp

Jo - seph knew. Oh how what was true. In a mf rit. mf

23 24 25

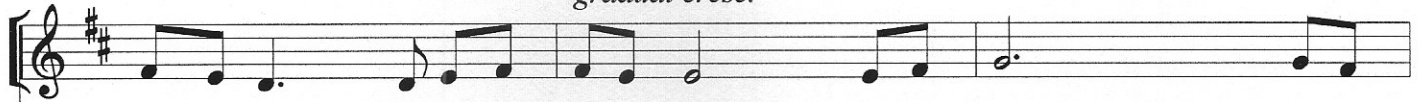

With emotion

cold stone cell with a bat - tered door, the pro - phet's blood bears wit - ness on the

mp

26 27 28

gradual cresc.

wood-en floor. Un-to his dy-ing breath as in life, so in gradual cresc.

29

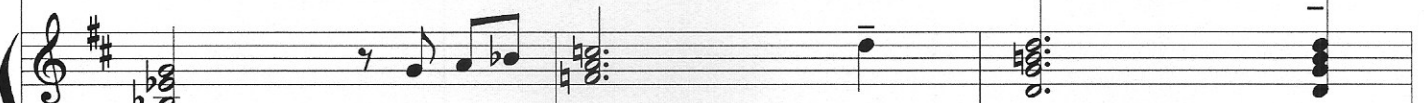

30

31

cresc.

death he tes-ti-fied of Christ. He cresc.

32

33

34

A little faster

knew! Jo-seph knew! He knew God lives for he 35

36

37

saw Them there; the Fa-ther and the Son in an-swer to his prayer. 'Tho the hearts of men may rage, yet, no-thing can change what is true;

38 39 40

41 42 43

mf

mf

rit. With conviction

Jo-seph knew. I would

44 45 46

mp

gradual dim.

rit.

mp

mf
give my life to know. I would give my life to know.
mf

47 48 49

f Broaden
I will give my life to know as Jo - seph
f

50 51 52

mf dim. rit. mp
knew.
mf dim. rit. mp

53 54